A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

Heavenly Father,

We come before you with gratitude in our hearts for the fathers in our lives. Bless them as they care for and raise their families. Grant all fathers with the strength to guide their families with love, wisdom, and compassion.

Give them the patience to listen, the courage to lead, and the understanding to nurture their children. In times of joy, may they rejoice with their families, and in times of struggle, may they find solace in your guidance. May they be shining examples of integrity and kindness for their children to follow.

Amen

Reflections From Our Pastor

June 16th, 2024

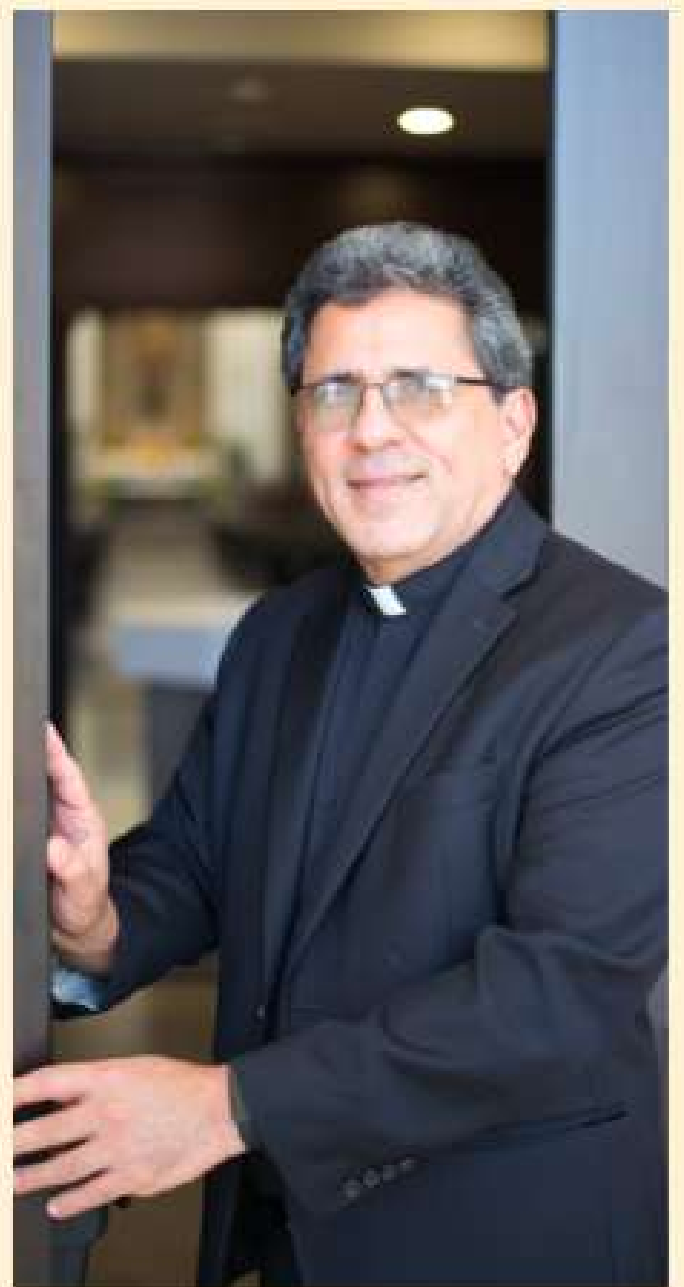

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate Father's Day, I reflect on the vocation of a father and on how it is deeply rooted in love, guidance, and protection. In the image of God our Father, and with the example of Joseph, earthly fathers are called to provide for, nurture, and support their families. Fathers embody qualities of strength, wisdom, and compassion, mirroring God's divine qualities of fatherhood.

Inspired by God's sacrificial love, human fathers are also compelled to love their children unconditionally, to forgive them, and to offer them guidance in the most challenging times. Through their own example, fathers serve as role models for their children, teaching them the values and virtues that help to shape their character and worldview.

Similarly, Joseph as the foster father of Jesus, exemplified obedience to God's will, humility, and devotion in his role as protector and provider for his family. Christian fathers draw inspiration from Joseph's quiet strength and unwavering faith as they carry out their roles as heads of their own families.

In essence, fathers are entrusted by God with the sacred duty of loving, nurturing and guiding their children, reflecting God's divinity and Joseph's earthly example. Through their heroic actions and sacrifices, fathers play an invaluable role in raising their children to be good, faithful, and virtuous citizens of the world.

Fr Juan Carlos Paguaga

May God bless you always,
